

RM Certified Network Technician examination - Sample questions

The RM Certified Network Technician examination contains 40 multiple-choice questions, examples of which are illustrated below.

Where text appears in bold, it indicates the value of specific data in that scenario, or the label of a particular field on a form or dialogue box.

Question 1.

When logging on to a Community Connect 3 workstation to research and write an acceptable use policy, which user should you log on as?

A	A user with system administrator privileges.
B	Your own user, with no system administrator privileges.
C	An user with Authorised management rights.
D	An Advanced Staff user with Delegate management rights.

Question 2.

Users configured with which user type do NOT have a home directory?

A	Guest user type.
B	RM Explorer user type.
C	Restricted user type.
D	Standard user type.

Question 3.

Which one of the following options would allow a teacher to disable a student's Internet access?

A	Select the Management Right of Internet in the teacher's properties.
B	Select Internet access enabled in the teacher's properties.
C	Select Allow Internet enable/disable in the teacher's properties.
D	Select the Management Right of Delegate in the teacher's properties.

Question 4.

When a user has exceeded their disk quota, which of the following is true?

A	The user is unable to log on and should contact a system administrator.
B	The user can still log on but receives a message when attempting to save to their My Documents folder.
C	The user can still log on but receives a message when attempting to save anywhere on the network.
D	The user can still log on but receives a message immediately after logging on.

Please note: These examples are designed to illustrate the typical style of RM Certified Network Technician examination questions.
