3. Pre-Requisites

- 3.1 All Hardware, Software and cabling infrastructure components associated with this order must have been ordered and delivered from either RM, or a Third Party supplier, in time for the commencement of the Works.
- 3.2 The Customer shall be responsible for the arrangement and/or completion of any Third Party services required prior to commencement of the Works.

4. RM Personnel

- 4.1 The RM project co-ordinator, or project manager, will be responsible for co-ordinating all activities relating to the Works to be carried out by RM.
- 4.2 The Installation Engineer will be responsible for carrying out the Works defined within the SoW, unless otherwise stated.
- 4.3 The Installation Engineer may decide to involve other RM personnel to assist with the Works defined in the SoW.
- 4.4 The Installation Engineer may carry out the Works at the Customer's site or from a remote location including any RM office in any country, at RM's sole discretion.
- 4.5 The project coordinator, Installation Engineer or other RM personnel involved with delivering a customer installation may be located in RM's India office.

5. Commencement of Works

- 5.1 The commencement of the Works will only take place when the SoW, signed by an Authorised Signatory, has been received and approved in writing by RM and an order for the Works defined in the SoW has been received.
- 5.2 The date for the commencement of Works will be agreed between RM and the Customer.
- 5.3 If an amendment is made to an order and this necessitates a change to the SoW then the Works will only take place when the revised SoW, signed by an Authorised Signatory, has been received by RM and the amended order for the Works defined in the SoW has been received.

IMPORTANT - PLEASE NOTE - CANCELLATION CHARGE

- 5.4 If the Customer cancels any Works (or re-schedules and subsequently cancels any Works) then the Customer may be charged a cancellation charge of 75% of the total price of the Works if notice of cancellation is given less than seven (7) calendar days before the scheduled commencement date of the Works set out in the SoW. The Customer agrees that such charge amounts to a genuine pre-estimate of the losses suffered by RM on such cancellation.

6. Acceptance Testing

The Installation Engineer will undertake a series of basic Acceptance Tests to demonstrate to the Customer that the Works defined in the SoW have been successfully completed.

7. Duration

- 7.1 The duration of the on- or off-site installation will be provided to the Customer by the RM project coordinator. Any timescales for completion of the Works given are provided as an estimate only; the time required on- or off- site may vary. Any changes to the estimated time RM require on- or off- site to complete the Works will be notified to the Customer as soon as possible.
- 7.2 For the avoidance of doubt, if RM complete the Works before the estimated date, RM will not be obliged to remain on the Customer's site or carry out further works and the fees as set out in the order will not reduce.

8. Customer Responsibilities

- 8.1 The Customer is solely responsible for and must:
 - 8.1.1 Unpack and position all Hardware equipment in its final location, to the satisfaction of RM, prior to the commencement of the Works.
 - 8.1.2 Ensure that the users of any existing systems that are being upgraded, or extended, are informed that the systems will be unavailable during the period over which the Works are being carried out.
 - 8.1.3 Ensure that any existing Cabling Infrastructure is functioning correctly. RM reserves the right to run any tests it deems appropriate on the Cabling Infrastructure before commencing the Works. Should RM require alterations to be made to the Cabling Infrastructure, it shall inform the Customer of the requirements in order for RM to implement the Works. Should the Customer not, within twenty-eight (28) days, make such alterations, then RM has the right to cancel this Agreement.
 - 8.1.4 Ensure that any copies of Software required for the configuration of any Hardware, not supplied as part of the order, are available prior to the commencement of the Works.
 - 8.1.5 Ensure that any copies of Software required for the configuration of Applications, not supplied as part of the order, are available prior to the commencement of the Works.
 - 8.1.6 Ensure that full, verified tape backups of any existing network Servers are made prior to the commencement of the Works. In the event of unforeseen difficulties the Installation Engineer may have to use such backups to restore Servers to their previous state. The Customer is therefore responsible for any loss of data due to failure, or incompleteness, of any backup media provided.
 - 8.1.7 Provide the Installation Engineer with a network administrator user's logon identity and password for all existing Servers to be accessed.
 - 8.1.8 Provide the Installation Engineer with at least one ordinary (i.e. user access which must not have network administrator or supervisor access privileges) network user's logon identity and password for all existing Servers to be accessed.
 - 8.1.9 Ensure that the Installation Engineer is granted full and exclusive access to all parts of the network between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Any Works to be undertaken outside of these hours will be agreed with the Customer, who will not unreasonably withhold their consent.
 - 8.1.10 Ensure that the Customer's network support staff may be easily contacted during the period over which the Works are being carried out.
 - 8.1.11 Ensure that the Installation Engineer is informed of any operational difficulties with either any existing network or building infrastructure prior to the commencement of the Works.
 - 8.1.12 Backup and maintaining the final system configuration once the Works have been completed and the Customer will have responsibility these post completion of the Works.
- 8.2 The provision of the Works by RM is subject to the Customer performing or complying with all of its responsibilities set out in this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, RM may without notice suspend or terminate the Works in the event that:
 - (a) any of the Customer's responsibilities as set out in this Agreement is not performed; or
 - (b) any Virus is transmitted onto any of RM's systems.
- 8.3 The Customer must ensure that the Network is protected against the threat of Virus infection by installing and maintaining up to date anti-virus software.
- 8.4 The Customer must keep the Network current and secure by applying all appropriate RM validated service releases and Software updates.

- 8.5 The Customer must, at all times, implement and enforce an Acceptable Use Policy for the Network. The Customer shall be responsible for ensuring that all users of the Network comply with the Acceptable Use Policy. Further, where there is a breach of the Acceptable Use Policy, the Customer shall take such steps as are appropriate in all the circumstances (which may, for the avoidance of doubt, include disciplinary action and/or ceasing to permit further use of the Network by the relevant individual(s)).
- 8.6 The Customer shall be responsible for procuring all required internet connections and, for the avoidance of doubt, all internet costs shall be entirely the responsibility of the Customer.
- 8.7 The Customer must have in force current software licenses for all software on the Network. If the Customer instructs RM to install any Software, it is the Customer's responsibility to check and agree to the terms of the licence agreements before installation. The Customer authorises the Installation Engineer to accept any licence agreements necessary to complete the Works on the Customer's behalf.
- 8.8 The Customer must maintain the configuration, Hardware and cabling relating to the Network(s) in good working order and within any specifications provided by RM.
- 8.9 The Customer must maintain securely, good quality current backup copies of all Network Software and data on the Customer's premises. The Customer must provide access to current backup copies to RM (and RM authorised third party) personnel connected with the provision of the Works where required.
- 8.10 The Customer must permit RM (and RM authorised Third Party) personnel connected with the provision of the Works access to the Customer's premises to work on the Network where reasonably required.
- 8.11 Where required to provide any of the Works, the Customer shall ensure the provision of an installed data link through which RM can access the Network using RM's chosen remote access software and technology. The Customer must also provide access to those areas of the Network as required by RM for RM to deliver the Works.
- 8.12 Following the completion of the Works the Customer must endeavour to functionally check all Hardware and Software installed or configured under the SoW. Should there be any incomplete Works for RM to complete this will be detailed on 'RM Installations Customer Handover and Sign-Off' and arrangements made between the parties to complete them.
- 8.13 Functional checks should be carried by the Customer during the first five (5) days following completion of the Works and successful Acceptance Tests i.e. with normal numbers of users logged on and accessing the Hardware and Software in typical modes of use.
- 8.14 Where the Works have been completed during out of term periods, such as school holidays, functionality checking would normally be carried out at the start of the next term. However, RM will not be held responsible for any damage to any equipment or the Network including but not limited to flood, fire, physical trauma, customer-implemented & unsupported configuration changes which have negative impact on the results of the functionality checking.
- 8.15 Incidents, where Hardware or Software fails during the functional checking, should be reported directly to RM Customer Support, details of which can be found at www.rm.com. Customers should expect to carry out reasonable levels of diagnostics and assistance to RM Customer Support in rectifying any reported failures.
- 8.16 Issues of a non-technical nature arising from the Works, or enquiries regarding outstanding tasks, should be reported to the RM project co-ordinator.

9. Hardware

- 9.1 RM will only install the Hardware and Software upgrades detailed in the SoW.
- 9.2 Any other dependent Hardware or Software upgrades must be installed by the Customer before commencement of the Works. If the Customer fails to install appropriate Hardware or Software, RM reserve the right to delay the dates agreed with the project coordinator for provision of the Works. If the Customer fails to install the appropriate Hardware or Software within thirty (30) days, RM have the right to terminate the order without notice.
- 9.3 RM will use reasonable endeavours to install Customer supplied Software drivers for any supplied Hardware items. RM will not be responsible for obtaining the Software drivers or determining their correct function for the Hardware.
- 9.4 The minimum specification for Workstations should be determined in relation to the Software Applications required to be installed on the Workstation.
- 9.5 RM cannot be held responsible for the performance of a Workstation if the Hardware specification does not meet the requirements necessary to run a particular Application and will not undertake tasks to configure Workstations that do not meet the required specification.

10. Documentation

- 10.1 Following completion of the Works the Customer will be issued with a copy of the RM Installations Customer Handover and Sign-Off documentation which will be made available from the RM support teams. A full report detailing the exact configuration and set-up will only be issued if this has been agreed as part of the SoW.

11. Quality

- 11.1 RM installations operate under and are formally accredited to BS EN ISO 9001.

12. Non-Functional Systems

- 12.1 RM will not be held responsible where a system cannot be made to function correctly for reasons beyond RM's reasonable control, e.g. Virus infection, misuse or abuse, force majeure, faulty or incompatible Hardware (unless supplied as part of this integration work) or corrupt or incompatible Software supplied by the Customer.

13. Software Application Installation

- 13.1 RM will use reasonable endeavours to ensure that any Third Party Software supplied for inclusion on systems is installed in accordance with the requirements of the Customer. Where this is not possible due to limitations of the Hardware and/or Software the Customer will be informed at the earliest possible opportunity.
- 13.2 Where existing Applications are migrated from existing systems the Applications will be migrated on an "as exists" basis and any issues with the existing Software will not be investigated or rectified by RM.
- 13.3 It is the responsibility of the Customer to ensure that a Customer representative, with sufficient knowledge of the Applications, is available to ensure the application is fully tested following the installation.
- 13.4 The Customer acknowledges that RM is not responsible for supporting any Software, including any RM Software provided under the Works, unless there is a relevant RM support agreement in place.

14. Price

- 14.1 Unless a written quotation has been given (whereupon the price quoted will be fixed for a period of thirty (30) days or such other period as is specified therein) the price for the Works is subject to alteration without notice and the price charged to the Customer will be that applicable at the date of RM's acceptance of the order or (at RM's option) the start date of the Works. All prices are exclusive of Value Added Tax (and any similar tax) which will be added as separate items on RM's invoice.
- 14.2 RM has the right, each contract year, to increase the price for the Works on 30 days' prior written notice to the Customer, by the higher of: (i) the annual UK RPI-X increase; (ii) the annual UK Consumer Price Index increase; and (iii) 3%. Where applicable and on 30 days' prior written notice to the Customer, RM reserves the right in its sole discretion, to pass onto the Customer, any telecommunications connectivity pricing changes imposed on RM by its telecom suppliers.
- 14.3 Unless otherwise notified to the Customer in writing by RM, RM shall invoice the Customer immediately upon acceptance by RM of a SoW and the Customer shall pay all invoices within fourteen (14) days of the date thereof (time being of the essence).
- 14.4 RM reserves the right to charge interest at a rate of 3% per annum above the Barclays Bank base rate ruling from time to time on any payment or any part payment overdue calculated from the date due and to recover its expenses including legal fees and costs of collection and to suspend delivery, performance of any warranty, or license, or (at RM's option) to terminate in whole or in part the Agreement.
- 14.4 All payments will be made without set off or counterclaim or any other withholding whatsoever.

15. Risk

- 15.1 Risk of loss or damage to any Hardware or Software shall pass from RM to the Customer on delivery of any such goods to the Customer's premises or successful installation of any Software onto the Network. The Customer agrees to insure such goods on delivery.

16. Liability

- 16.1 Save in the case of negligence by RM causing death or personal injury (for which RM's liability shall be unlimited) or fraudulent misrepresentation, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, RM shall only be liable to the Customer for any direct physical loss caused by the failure by RM to perform its obligations hereunder up to a maximum of the total payments made by the Customer to RM in the calendar year in question.
- 16.2 RM shall not be liable for any indirect, special or consequential loss howsoever arising (including but not limited to loss of anticipated savings or data).

17. Termination

- 17.1 Either party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by thirty (30) days written notice to the other if: (a) the other party is in material breach of the Agreement (which includes non-payment of the price for the Works by the due date for payment), and in the case of a breach capable of remedy, has not remedied the breach within thirty (30) calendar days of written notice of such breach; or (b) the other party ceases to carry on business or enters into amalgamation, reconstruction or compounds with its creditors generally or has a receiver appointed over all of its assets or becomes unable to pay its debts as they fall due. Failure by either party to exercise its rights hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver of those rights.

18. Data Protection

- 18.1 In this Agreement, the terms Controller, Processor, Data Subject, Personal Data, Special Categories of Personal Data, Processing, Data Protection Impact Assessment and Personal Data Breach shall be as defined in the Data Protection Legislation and "Data" shall mean the Personal Data and Special Categories of Personal Data provided to RM by the Customer in connection with this Agreement.
- 18.2 The Customer acknowledges that it is a Controller and that RM is a Processor.
- 18.3 Both parties will comply with all applicable requirements of the Data Protection Legislation. This clause 18 is in addition to, and does not relieve, remove or replace, a Party's obligations under the Data Protection Legislation.
- 18.4 RM shall:
- 18.4.1 ensure that its employees shall, Process the Data only on the Customer's instructions as set out or referred to in the Agreement to provide the Works;
 - 18.4.2 provide appropriate technical and organisational measures:
 - (a) to ensure the protection of the rights of the Data Subjects; and
 - (b) ensure an appropriate level of security, assessing, in particular, the risks that are presented by Processing, to protect the Data against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, Data transmitted, stored or otherwise Processed;
 - 18.4.3 take all reasonable steps to ensure the reliability of any of its staff who have access to and/or process Data in connection with the Works, including duties of confidentiality under any employment contracts;
 - 18.4.4 assist the Customer, at the Customer's cost, in responding to any request from a Data Subject and in ensuring compliance with applicable obligations under the Data Protection Legislation with respect to security of Processing, Personal Data Breach notifications and communications, Data Protection Impact Assessments and consultations with supervisory authorities or regulators;
 - 18.4.5 notify the Customer without undue delay after becoming aware of a Personal Data Breach;
 - 18.4.6 notify the Customer immediately if it considers that any of the Customer's instructions infringe the Data Protection Legislation;
 - 18.4.7 at the written direction of the Customer, delete or return the Data to the Customer after the end of the provision of the Works relating to Processing, except that:
 - (a) RM may keep any Data, if required by any applicable laws to store the Personal Data; and
 - (b) RM may keep Data stored in any system back-ups; and
 - 18.4.8 maintain complete and accurate records and information to demonstrate its compliance with this clause 18 and provide access to the same for the purpose of a Customer conducted audit. Any audits must be no more than once in a twelve (12) month period and must be on not less than thirty (30) days' notice, must be conducted within RM's normal business hours, cause minimal disruption to RM, and be at the Customer's sole cost.
- 18.5 The parties acknowledge that RM will also use services and/or products from sub-processors in order to provide the Works under the Agreement and that, in doing so, RM may transfer Data to such sub-processors. Accordingly:
- 18.5.1 The Customer consents to the appointment by RM of the sub-processors listed in Schedule 1;

- 18.5.2 RM may appoint new sub-processors or make changes to the list in Schedule 1 provided that it notifies the Customer in writing a reasonable period of time in advance before a new sub-processor is granted access to Data; and
- 18.5.3 the Customer may object on reasonable data protection grounds in writing to the appointment of any new sub-processor provided it does so no later than 14 days after receiving the notice referred to in 18.5.2. If the parties cannot agree on a solution within a reasonable timeframe, either party may terminate the Services.
- 18.6 RM shall:
 - 18.6.1 agree written contractual obligations with each sub-processor which are at least equivalent to the obligations imposed on RM pursuant to this clause 18; and
 - 18.6.2 if applicable, ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place before internationally transferring Personal Data to its sub-processors.
- 18.7 The Customer agrees that, to provide the Works under the Agreement, RM will transfer the Data to sub-processors (including Affiliates) as set out in this clause 18.7. RM will transfer the Data outside the United Kingdom and the European Economic Area (“EEA”) to third countries which, at the time of the transfer, are not covered by adequacy regulations made by the Information Commissioner’s Office or the European Commission under the Data Protection Legislation for the purpose of the transfer of personal data pursuant to the Data Protection Legislation (each an “International Transfer”). For each International Transfer, RM shall ensure that an agreement is in place with the relevant sub-processor(s) which shall incorporate the EU Standard Contractual Clauses (“EU SCCs”) and UK International Data Transfer Addendum to the EU SCCs for the transfer of Personal Data (the “EU SCCs and UK Addendum”) or, if the EU GDPR does not apply, only the UK International Transfer Agreement. Under this clause 18.7, RM may make International Transfers to its Affiliate RMESI (located in India) as well as to the sub-processors located outside the EEA as set out in Schedule 1. Details of the EU SCCs and UK Addendum agreed between RM and its Affiliate RMESI can be found on this page under the heading “Data Protection Terms”.
- 18.8 RM shall remain fully liable to the Customer for the performance of any sub-processor appointed by it pursuant to clause 18.5.
- 18.9 The Customer agrees to comply with its obligations under Data Protection Legislation and warrants that it has all necessary consents and notices in place in relation to its collection, processing and provision of Data, to enable the lawful transfer of the Data to RM in connection with, and for the duration of, the Works provided under the Agreement.
- 18.10 The Customer shall indemnify and hold harmless RM against all costs, claims, losses, damages and expenses (including legal expenses) arising out of, or in connection with, any breach of this clause 18 by the Customer and/or its employees, agents and/or sub-contractors.
- 18.11 The Customer acknowledges that RM is reliant on the Customer for direction as to the extent to which RM is entitled to use and process the Data. Consequently, RM will not be liable for any claim brought by the Customer or any Data Subject arising from any action or omission by RM to the extent that such action or omission resulted from the Customer’s instructions.
- 18.12 Schedule 1 sets out the following information regarding the Data: subject-matter; duration of the Processing; nature and purpose of the Processing; type of Data; categories of Data Subjects; and the obligations and rights of RM.
- 18.13 RM may act as an independent Controller as further set out in RM’s privacy policy which can be found at www.rm.com.

19. Other

- 19.1 RM reserves the right to change this Agreement from time to time either (i) on giving the Customer no less than thirty (30) days’ notice of the change and the date on which the change takes effect and/or (ii) by updating the same on its website at www.rm.com, in which case the updated Agreement shall take effect thirty (30) days after posting on www.rm.com.
- 19.2 In the event of any conflict between this document and the standard RM Terms and Conditions of Sale, this document shall take precedence.
- 19.3 This Agreement and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or its subject matter or formation shall be construed pursuant to the laws of England and Wales and the parties irrevocably agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, its formation or subject-matter.

20. Notices

- 20.1 Formal contractual notices shall be delivered both by email, and by courier or first class registered post to the parties' representatives below at the following addresses:

Customer: the Customer's registered address, and the email address of either the senior company representative of the Customer or the Customer's account manager as set out in this Agreement or applicable SoW;

RM: RM's registered address at 142b Park Drive, Milton Park, Abingdon, Oxfordshire OX14 4SE, England, marked for the attention of the Company Secretary, RM Education Ltd, and the email of RM's Company Secretary at CompanySecretary@rm.com, with in copy Notifications@rm.com and Customer's account manager.

- 20.2 Operational correspondence should be sent to a party's usual operational contact(s).
- 20.3 All formal contractual notices delivered by first class registered post or courier will be deemed to have been delivered on the second Business Day after posting. Emails will be deemed to have been delivered instantaneously provided that no notice of failure to deliver the email is received at the time of transmission. Where an email is received outside of business hours (9.00am to 5.00pm on a Business Day), it will be deemed delivered on the next Business Day.

21. Confidential Information

- 21.1 Unless agreed otherwise in writing, for the term of this Agreement and for three years after termination of this Agreement, each party agrees to maintain in confidence and shall not use, disclose or copy any materials or, documentation, including without limitation any financial and sales information, or any other information provided to it (in whatever form) by the other party other than for the purpose of fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement or seeking advice. If either party has to disclose any such confidential information to its employees, contractors and service providers it shall only do so on a need-to-know basis subject to ensuring that such employees, contractors and service providers are bound by the same obligations set out in this clause and for a reasonable period after any disclosure. The obligations of confidence in this clause shall not apply to the extent that (i) any information is or comes into the public domain other than as a result of a breach of this clause and/or (ii) any information is required to be disclosed by law or by order of a Court or other regulatory authority.

Schedule 1

Processor information – Implementation and Customer Services (“ICS”) Installation Services

The Customer acknowledges that RM and its subcontractors may have access to Personal Data in the provision of the ICS Installation Services to the Customer, when access is granted to IT systems through access rights given by the Customer, throughout the term of this Agreement.
