Such notice must expire either at the end of the Initial Term or at the end of subsequent successive terms equivalent to the period of the Initial Term. The Customer may also request RM to vary the Services during the Initial Term or any Renewal Term subject to giving RM at least four (4) months' written notice (or any alternative notice period expressly stated in the Service Proposal) to allow RM time for an orderly transition and to redeploy staff. Such request if agreed by RM will result in a revised Service Proposal setting out the agreed variation of the Services and the applicable revised Charges.

4 Scope of the Services

- 4.1 The Services to be provided by RM shall be as set out in the relevant Proposal Pack that is agreed by both parties in writing. The descriptions set forth in the Proposal Pack shall be subject to these Conditions. Unless otherwise expressly stated in a relevant Condition, the terms of these Conditions shall prevail over the terms of the Proposal Pack or Service Commencement Pack if there is any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of the Proposal Pack, Service Commencement Pack and the terms of these Conditions.
- 4.2 RM shall be responsible for providing the Services as described in the Proposal Pack and is not obliged to provide any other services requested by the Customer unless it agrees to do so.

Notwithstanding any copyright notice appearing thereon the Software is proprietary and confidential information and Customer agrees not to provide, disclose or make available the Software or part thereof to any third party.
- 4.9 RM assumes that the Site and Customer's ICT Estate are suitable for the receipt of the Services. Should the performance of the Services be, or will likely be, adversely affected, RM shall in good faith, provide a proposal for rectifying the relevant issue. For the avoidance of doubt this may include the suggested provision of Additional Services to bring the In-scope ICT Estate into a suitable working state so that RM can provide the Services in accordance with the Service Proposal. RM shall have no liability to the Customer for the performance of the Services to the extent that performance is affected by the condition of the Site and/or Customer's ICT Estate.

4.10 Should the Customer require admin access to any of the Customer systems, the Customer agrees to sign an indemnity agreement with RM, in the format provided by RM. This will then form part of this agreement and will be implemented by way of a variation agreement.

4.11.3 The Customer accepts that on-site support depends upon the availability of individuals to provide and manage the relevant Services and RM cannot always guarantee the availability of such individuals, e.g. due to illness, compassionate leave. In these circumstances, RM shall use reasonable endeavours to provide remote support and/or emergency cover to mitigate the impact of such absence.

4.12 Fair Use Policy

4.12.1 The Customer acknowledges that, for the benefit of all RM's customers, including the Customer, RM has structured and priced the provision of the Services on the basis of average levels of use. By taking this approach, RM is able to deliver a quality service to all RM customers but RM assumes that no individual customer, including the Customer, places excessive demands upon RM's resources. The Customer therefore accepts the provisions of this Condition 4.12.

4.12.2 If the Customer makes excessive use of the Services and/or the resources used to deliver the Services (in RM's opinion acting in good faith):

4.12.2.1 RM shall be entitled to restrict the Services provided and/or, the Customer's use of the Services and/or the resources used to deliver the Services, each in such manner as RM (acting in good faith) considers appropriate; and/or

4.12.2.2 RM may contact the Customer to request that the Customer modifies the manner in which it uses the Services and/or the resources used to deliver the Services - this may include (by way of example only) asking the Customer to reduce the number of calls logged, the number of change requests made, the service management time requested and/or the technical architecture time used. The Customer agrees to honour any such request and ensure that its use of the Services and/or the resources used to deliver the Services is modified accordingly.

For the avoidance of doubt, examples of excessive use of the Services are the project management, installation, maintenance and support of infrastructure and eco-systems, installation of a large number of devices and one-off project work.

- 5.9 The Customer must notify RM before making any changes to the In-scope ICT Estate. Advance knowledge of planned changes is essential to ensure that RM engineers have current information on the status of the In-scope ICT Estate, helping RM to resolve issues affecting the In-scope ICT Estate more efficiently. For the avoidance of doubt, the Customer must notify RM of any change of internet service provider.
- 5.10 In respect of each Site the Customer shall provide to RM such non-exclusive rights of access to and egress from that Site and such non-exclusive rights to enter and remain on that Site as are reasonably necessary for the purposes of providing the Services at that Site for the duration of the Services.

As such the Customer accepts that if the service is moved before the end of the 3rd anniversary, RM shall be entitled to invoice for the training costs up, to a maximum of £5000 per technician.

- 13.2 The Customer acknowledges that RM has relied upon certain information and/or assumptions in connection with TUPE matters. As such, the Proposal Pack shall specify the following details (together the "TUPE Assumptions"):
- 13.2.1 the number of individuals whose employment will transfer to RM in connection with the Services as a result of the operation of TUPE (the "Transferring Employees"); and
 - 13.2.2 all emoluments and other payments, costs and/or liabilities that may be incurred by RM as a result of employing the Transferring Employees (the "TUPE Employment Costs").
- 13.3 Only those Transferring Employees and TUPE Employment Costs expressly stated in the Proposal Pack shall fall within the TUPE Assumptions. For the avoidance of doubt, where a Proposal Pack does not explicitly set out details of any Transferring Employees and/or any TUPE Employment Costs, it is acknowledged that RM's assumption will be that there are no Transferring Employees and/or TUPE Employment Costs.
- 13.4 If any of the TUPE Assumptions proves incorrect in any respect, the Customer shall indemnify and keep indemnified RM and/or any relevant subcontractors of RM against any and all Employment Liabilities that RM and/or any relevant subcontractors may suffer, sustain, incur, pay or be put to arising from or in connection with any person employed by the Customer or any contractor of the Customer whose employment or claims arising out of their employment and/or its termination transfer to the Contractor or any sub-contractor of the Contractor as a result of the commencement of the Services (in whole or part) or as a result of any subsequent variation of the Services (in whole or part) in each case pursuant to or by virtue of TUPE or who claim that their employment and/or such claims so transfer.

- 13.5 Where RM requires fewer on-site staff to operate the Services than those whose employment transfers to RM as a result of the operation of TUPE (regardless of whether this is identified in the Proposal Pack), RM may (at any time) terminate the employment of one or more of the relevant employees (the “Relevant Employees”). For the avoidance of doubt, this shall apply whether or not RM is lawfully entitled to terminate the employment of such Relevant Employees. In those circumstances, the Customer shall indemnify and keep indemnified RM and/or any relevant subcontractor against any and all Employment Liabilities that RM and/or any relevant subcontractor may suffer, sustain, incur, pay or be put to in respect of the Relevant Employees. The Customer’s liability to RM under this clause may be reduced if, and to the extent (but only to that extent), the parties have agreed to include a specified sum (“Restructure Prepayment”) within the Charges relating to the Customer’s potential liability under this clause provided always that all of the following conditions must be satisfied in full in order for this to apply: (i) the Proposal Pack itself shall specify the precise amount of the Restructure Prepayment (i.e., it shall not be sufficient for the figure to have been agreed separately if it is not explicitly stated within the Proposal Pack itself); (ii) the Restructure Prepayment must be explicitly referred to within the Proposal Pack as a “Restructure Prepayment” and explicitly refer to this clause 13.5; and (iii) the Proposal Pack shall clearly state how the Restructure Prepayment is built into the Charges (i.e., which payments the Restructure Prepayment are within) and all of those payments must have been paid by the Customer to RM in full and in cleared funds (i.e., RM shall not be obliged to reduce its claim under this clause in respect of any part of the Restructure Prepayment it has not actually received).

13.6 Pension-Related Benefits

- 13.6.1 Notwithstanding the above provisions of this Condition 13 and/or anything stated to the contrary in any Proposal Pack (whether explicit or implicit), RM assumes that the sole liability that it will have in relation to the provision of retirement related benefits (including without limitation any pension) to or otherwise in respect of any Transferring Employees shall be an ongoing employer contribution to the relevant pension scheme of a fixed percentage of the base salary of such Transferring Employees .
- 13.6.2 The Proposal Pack shall state the relevant percentage and, where no such percentage is expressly stated, the employer contribution rate shall be assumed to be no greater than ten percent (10%) of the base salary of the Transferring Employees. The employer contribution assumed shall be the “Assumed Pension Costs”.
- 13.6.3 If at any time RM and/or any subcontractor of RM becomes liable for any costs of any kind (including without limitation as a result of increased employer contribution rates and/or any exit or deficit payment) in excess of the Assumed Pension Costs, the Customer shall indemnify and keep indemnified RM and/or any relevant subcontractor against such liability.

13.7 The Customer and RM each agree that, subject to Condition 13.8, throughout the duration of the Services and for a period of twelve (12) months afterwards, the Customer and RM shall not either directly or indirectly solicit or entice away (or seek to attempt to solicit or entice away) from the employment of the other party any person employed by such other party in the provision of the Services or (in the case of the Customer) in the receipt and/or administration of the Services.

13.8 For the avoidance of doubt, Condition 13.7:

13.8.1 shall be subject always to the provisions of Conditions 13.1 to 13.6 (above) – i.e., neither party shall be in breach of Condition 13.7 where the employment of an individual transfers from one party to the other as a result of the application of TUPE; and

13.8.2 shall not prevent either party from employing, or making an offer to employ, any employee of the other party, where such employment or offer has resulted from the relevant person making an unprompted application to the Customer or RM (as applicable) following a bona fide advertised recruitment campaign.

14 Miscellaneous

14.1 RM shall be fully entitled to use in any way it deems fit any skills, techniques, concepts or know-how it acquired, developed or used in the course of performing the Services.

14.2 Neither party shall be liable to the other for any delay in or failure to perform its obligations under these Conditions (other than for payment of money) provided that such delay or failure is due to causes beyond its reasonable control. Such causes shall include but are not limited to acts of God, natural disaster, lightning, flood, subsidence, earthquake, weather conditions, epidemic, pandemic, fire, explosion, war, civil disorder, acts of terrorism, industrial disputes, change of law, acts or omissions or local government or other competent authorities.

14.3 Failure by RM to exercise or delay exercising any of these Conditions shall not constitute or be deemed to be a waiver of RM's rights hereunder nor prejudice RM's rights to take subsequent action.

14.4 Nothing in these Conditions shall be construed as creating a partnership or agency or contract of employment between the Customer and RM.

14.5 The invalidity or unenforceability for any reason of any part of these Conditions shall not prejudice the continuation in force of the remainder thereof.

14.6 Neither party shall assign these Conditions without the prior written consent of the other, provided that RM shall be entitled to assign both its rights and obligations under these Conditions to any subsidiary (of any level) of RM plc by giving written notice to such effect to the Customer. RM shall also be entitled to subcontract the performance of its obligations under these Conditions. RM may also use tools and services from third parties to deliver the Services.

- 14.7 No term of these Conditions is enforceable under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by a person or entity who is not a party to it.
- 14.8 The Customer shall ensure that it and all of its staff, agents, contractors and any other party performing its obligations or exercising its rights under or in connection with these Conditions and/or any other agreement that the Customer may have with RM, complies at all times with all applicable anti-bribery and/or corruption laws, regulations and codes of conduct in all jurisdictions. The Customer shall, whenever requested by RM, provide evidence of the measures, steps and processes that it takes to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Condition and the relevant laws, regulations and codes of conduct.
- 14.9 These Conditions, and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with these Conditions or the subject matter or formation of these Conditions shall be construed pursuant to the laws of England and Wales and the parties irrevocably agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with these Conditions, their formation or subject-matter. .
- 14.10 Where the Customer comprises two or more persons their liability and obligations to RM shall be joint and several.
- 14.11 The Customer acknowledges that it has read and agrees to be bound by these Conditions. The Customer further agrees that these Conditions, the Proposal Pack, the Service Commencement Pack, the Customer's order and all documents incorporated by reference are the complete and exclusive statement of the mutual understanding of the parties which supersede and cancel all previous oral and written agreements and communications relating to the subject matter hereof. Each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that in agreeing to these Conditions it has not relied on (or has been induced to agree these Conditions by) any statement, representation, warranty or understanding made prior to agreeing these Conditions. Nothing in this clause excludes any party's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 14.12 RM reserves the right to change these Conditions from time to time either (i) on giving the Customer no less than thirty (30) days' notice of the change and the date on which the change takes effect and/or (ii) by updating the same on its website at www.rm.com, in which case the updated Conditions shall take effect thirty (30) days after posting on www.rm.com.
